

Dawn Sangley is the President + Creative Director at SPRY Design, an Interior Architecture firm based in Baltimore, Maryland. With close to 25 years of experience in Architecture and Interior Design, Dawn has an extensive background designing and detailing retail and restaurant projects, workplace design, hospitality, education facilities and multifamily residential projects located throughout the United States. Her company prides itself on bringing spaces to life!