

A native of Colombia S.A., fluent in both English and Spanish, Claudia resides in Fells Point with her husband Tom and son Sebastian. With almost two decades in the downtown area & a passion for promoting urban living as well as local businesses, Claudia is a dedicated communicated advocate, owner at aMuse Toys & top producing Realtor with Coldwell Banker's Fells Point office.

aMuse Toys carries well-designed, creative, smart toys that stimulate children's imaginations. High quality, smart design, and responsible manufacturing are key components to all the brands showcased in Towles' stores.

Towles worked to help businesses pass an increase in the business improvement district to expand the Waterfront Partnership to include all of Fells Point. She is a co-founder of Fells Point District and is a lead advocate for Fells Point Business Alliance. She is also a member of the Governor's Advisory Council on the Impact of Regulations on Small Businesses in Maryland and board-member-at-large for Maryland Retailers Association.